Good Morning Jean,

I have included a registration form for the crane training and certification class we are planning for December, 2009. The class may be of interest to your members that use cranes or boom trucks in their work.

There will be three days of class room and practical testing and then on Saturday there will be the written exam. The deadline for submitting registrations will be November 7th. We must obtain the test registration from the participants and submit the crane and boom truck information for load charts by November 19th.

Note that we are anticipating some help with the registration fee. There are two sources that may be available, a workforce development grant and the NDOR training funds. The NDOR training funds are only available to those folks that do contract highway work for NDOR.

This registration may be mailed, faxed or e-mailed to me. If payment is not included you will be billed after the fact for the class. This bill may be for just the breaks and meals costs if the other funding is obtained.

Sincerely,

Leonard Weander
