NEBRASKA BUILDING CHAPTER
THE CONSTRUCTION ASSOCIATION

SPRING GC & SC ROUNDTABLE— Construction Coalition

DATE: Thursday, March 28, 2024

TIME: 3:00-5:00pm

LOCATION: Round the Bend Steakhouse, Conference Center, Ashland

PROGRAM: Construction Coalition — Headlines throughout the United States read loss after loss of jobsite thefts. Builders are tightening jobsite security, adapting new ways of surveillance, and working within the industry to identify best practices.

Theft can be more than missing tools and materials; it may include:

- Jobsite Thefts
- Employee Theft Prevention
- Fraud Protection
- Effective Loss Prevention
- Asset Protection

What is your organization’s plan to deter theft? What happens when theft occurs? Who’s responsible on the jobsite? In the office?

Learn what is working to deter thefts and crime on jobsites, resources available to identify and track stolen items, working with insurance companies, practices to protect your assets and starting a coalition in other communities.

PRESENTERS: Officer Jason Hellmuth, Continuing Education Officer, Lincoln Police Department. With more than 23 years’ experience in the law enforcement industry, Jason is skilled in Law Enforcement, Evidence Collection, Training and Education, and Criminal Justice. He is also a Certified Crime Scene Analyst.

Lt. Eric Jones, Investigative Services, Nebraska State Patrol, Lincoln, NE. Investigative Services includes three areas of concentration: drug investigation, criminal investigation and liquor enforcement. The HDQ Investigative Services Criminal Investigators work cases ranging from theft to homicides.
