COMMUNICATION STP v 3.0

February 2 to February 27, 2026

Required video conference Wednesdays 3:30-4:30pm CST

This course presents a body of knowledge and skills that today's construction supervisors need in order to be effective communicators on their job site. Click here for specific course topics.

CONTRACT DOCUMENTS STP v 3.0

March 2 to March 27, 2026

Required video conference Wednesdays 3:30-4:30pm CST

Contract documents and construction law course covers four central themes that are integrated and emphasized throughout the course and through activities used to demonstrate and practice skills. The themes include the construction professional's roles and responsibilities of the contracting parties; an understanding of how documents help to solve problems and resolve issues; provide a framework for jobsite processes and how to maintain a productive and positive relationship with all stakeholders in the project. Click here for specific course topics.

Participants are required to purchase the textbook for each course. Tuition cost is $395.00 per participant and includes the textbook. The required text for each course will be ordered for you by the Chapter office and shipped to the company address you provide on the registration form. Contact Vicki if you need the textbook sent to an alternate address.
